

Paper V Population Education.

(80+20)

4 CreditsUnit I: Population Education.

- i. Meaning need and Importance
- ii. Objectives of Population Education
- iii. Emergence of population education in India
- iv. Population growth and its impact on quality of life and national development.

Unit II: Population Composition.

- i. Age structure/ sex rural urban composition
- ii. Family welfare programmes
- iii. Fertility- Concept, determinants & measures of fertility.
- iv. Mortality- Concept, determinants & measures of fertility.

Unit III: Population Theories

- i. Social theory Karl Marx
- ii. Demographic theory (Malthus)
- iii. Concept of Quality of Life Population in relation to Nutrition, Education & Employment.
- iv. Population growth- its effects & consequences.

Unit IV: Teacher & Population Education

- i. Role of Teacher in Population Education.
- ii. Teacher's role in creating awareness of the consequences of population problems.
- iii. Inculcation of new values and attitudes leading to the development of rational and responsible attitudes towards population problems.
- iv. Teacher as community leader in the process of social change: working with the community to build awareness about population problems.