The NSS Unit and the Co-curricular Activities Committee of Government College of Engineering and Technology (GCET), Safapora, celebrated Constitution Day, also known as Samvidhan Diwas, on 26th November 2024. The program aimed to spread awareness about the Indian Constitution and its core values of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity, while promoting national unity and solidarity. Additionally, the event helps individuals understand their rights and responsibilities as citizens and fosters respect for the Constitution.

The program witnessed active participation from faculty, students, and NSS volunteers. It began with a brief speech by Prof. Sameer Ahmad Gupkari, the NSS Program Officer who emphasized the importance of Constitution Day. He reminded that this day commemorates the adoption of the Indian Constitution by the Constituent Assembly on November 26, 1949, a document that officially came into effect on January 26, 1950, celebrated as Republic Day.

Following his speech, several students delivered speeches highlighting India's transformative journey under the framework of the Constitution. They reflected on the vision and efforts of the Constituent Assembly in laying the foundation for a democratic nation. They also reaffirmed the nation's commitment to constitutional values, emphasizing the importance of upholding these principles in daily life.

An important part of the event was the Preamble Reading Ceremony, during which faculty members, students, and NSS volunteers, collectively recited the Preamble of the Indian Constitution. This solemn recitation inspired a sense of patriotism and a deeper understanding of the values and principles that guide the nation.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks by Prof. Tuba Rashid, the Convener of the Co-curricular Activities Committee. She appreciated the active participation of students, faculty, and volunteers, which made the event a success.
