REPORT

DECLAMATION CONTEST (WORLD AIDS DAY-2024)

Date: 04-12-2024

Venue: Conference hall

Organized by: Red Ribbon Club, Debates & Seminar Committee, NSS Units

INTRODUCTION

A declamation contest focusing on the theme "Substance use and HIV Risks; Take the Rights Path" was successfully conducted by the Red Ribbon Club in collaboration with the Debates & Seminar Committee & NSS, under the worthy guidance of Prof. (Dr) Seema Naz (Principal of the college).

The event aimed to educate participants and the audience about the realities of AIDS, its prevention, and the importance of compassion towards those affected by it.

EVENT PROCEEDINGS

The contest began at 11:00 am, with an opening address by Prof. Shah Lateef (Convener D&S Committee), who emphasized the significance of spreading awareness about HIV/AIDS and breaking the stigma surrounding it. The participants, one by one, took the stage to deliver their speeches. The performances were varied, with each contestant adding their unique flair to their presentation, making the event both exciting and thought-provoking.

PARTICIPANTS AND SPEECHES

Six students from various courses competed in the contest. Each speaker passionately delivered speeches that highlighted the facts about HIV/AIDS, the progress in treatments, the challenges of stigma, discrimination, and misinformation and the importance of education, testing, and early treatment.

JUDGING AND RESULTS

The speeches were evaluated by a panel of judges comprising

- 1. Prof. Shawana Manzoor (Nodal officer Red Ribbon Club)
- 2. Prof. Shah Lateef (Convener D&S Committee)
- 3. Prof. Syed Altaf (NSS Programme Officer)

Participants were judged on content, delivery, clarity, and their ability to connect with the audience.

After all participants had completed their speeches, the judges deliberated and announced the winners. Sana Shafi (M.A. 1st semester) took the first place with her impressive speech, followed by Mudabir Manzoor (UG 1st semester) and Shaista Shabir (M.A. 1st semester) in second and third places, respectively.

CONCLUSION

The event concluded with a thought-provoking speech by Prof. Shawana Manzoor (Nodal officer Red Ribbon Club) who reiterated the importance of unity and action in combating AIDS. Certificates and prizes will be distributed to the winners and participants on 07-12-2024.

Overall, the declamation contest served as a powerful platform to spread awareness about HIV/AIDS, debunk myths, and inspire collective responsibility toward ending this global epidemic.
